

Welcome to Colorado Trails Ranch

PLEASE NOTE:

THIS IS A SAMPLE SCHEDULE. THE ACTIVITIES VARY FROM WEEK TO WEEK, SO THE SCHEDULE DURING YOUR VISIT MAY BE SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT. THANKS!

Sunday

Get settled in, swim, hike and relax!

6:30 pm Dinner is in the dining room, followed by an Ice Cream Social in the Soda Fountain.

7:30 pm Guest introductions and orientation will be outside the Trading Post or in the Opera House depending on the weather.

Please let us know if you want to go to the Melodrama on Wednesday evening so we can order tickets for you. There is an information sheet in your guest book regarding the Melodrama.

Monday

- 7:00 am Early Bird coffee is in the lodge loft, above the dining room. Copies of Durango Herald and Denver Post are in the loft.
- 8-9:00 am Breakfast is in the dining room. Feel free to come to breakfast any time between 8 and 9 o'clock.
- 9:00 am Adults' and teens' horseback riding orientation in the arena. Please meet on the bleachers by the arena. Follow Cardiac Trail behind the lodge or you can take the driveway down to the arena.
Buckaroos and Rough Riders please meet your counselors in front of the Trading Post for your riding and fishing orientation. Both groups should be finished around noon, and can be found in the Ruckus Room.
- 12:30 pm Lunch is in the dining room. Please come around to the south side of the dining room (nearest Cabin Road) to get your hamburger, chicken breast or veggie burger off the grill before you go inside to eat.
- 2:00 pm This afternoon you have the option of horseback riding or a fly-fishing clinic (of course, you can also relax). Wranglers and fishing guides will talk with you at lunch about the afternoon's options.
The Buckaroos, Rough Riders and Teens should meet their counselors at the Trading Post for riding and activities. They will be finished and in the Ruckus Room at 4:30.
- 6:00 pm Hayride to the dinner cookout. Meet the hay wagon in front of the office. If you would rather walk, the trail begins behind the office. Be sure to bring a jacket – it may get chilly. Dinner cookout will be followed by a hayride for the kids and cowboy singer, Greg Ryder, will entertain the adults.

There are sign-up sheets in the office for the massage therapist on Tuesday afternoon, Tuesday's half-day hike, trap shooting on Tuesday and Thursday, Thursday's Mesa Verde trip and Friday's All-Day hike.

Tuesday

7:15 am Coffee and juices are available in the dining room. Copies of Durango Herald and Denver Post are in the loft.

8:00 am Pancake breakfast cookout – wander out to the cookout area for breakfast (cookout trail begins behind the office).

Fishermen have the option to take an all day trip to the San Juan River. This trip is an additional charge of $150 per person, which covers lunch, New Mexico fishing license, transportation, and guide. Be sure and talk with your fishing guides regarding this trip (we must have at least two guests participate).

9:30 am Half day hikers leave from in front of the Trading Post. Those of you who are not hiking have the option to ride or fly-fish. Buckaroos, Rough Riders, and Teens meet your counselors at the Trading Post for a morning ride and activities.

12:30 pm Lunch is in the dining room.

This afternoon you have the option to receive a massage from a professional massage therapist. The cost for a massage is $65 for a one hour session (this is paid directly to the therapist). The massages are in the parlor, below the dining room. Please sign up in the office on Monday if you would like a massage.

2:00 pm Your choices for this afternoon include horseback riding, fly-fishing, trap shooting or relaxing. Wranglers and fishing guides will walk around at lunch to talk with you about your options. If you would like to trap shoot, please sign up in the office in advance and meet the van in front of the office. We provide 12 and 20 gauge shotguns and you can purchase the ammo from your guide. Buckaroos meet their counselor at the Trading Post for an afternoon swimming and ice cream party.

6:30 pm Dinner tonight is in the dining room.

8:00 pm Please join the staff in the Opera House for Western Dancing and lots of fun for all ages.

Wednesday

- 7:00 am Early Bird coffee is in the lodge loft. Copies of Durango Herald and Denver Post are in the loft.
- 7:30–8:30 Breakfast is in the dining room. Feel free to come to breakfast any time between 7:30 and 8:30. Rafters will need to be sure to eat breakfast before 7:45
- 8:00 am Time for adults and kids to go whitewater rafting down the Animas River with professional guides! We will provide the towels and transportation; please meet the vans in front of the office. Timing is critical so please be on time.
- Rafters should plan on wearing their bathing suit, plenty of sunscreen and shoes that are secure (not flip-flops). If you don't have secure shoes, you can rent them for $6. You may also want money to purchase a picture of yourself rafting (photo CDs and printed photos are between $20 and $40).
- 9:15 am If you choose not to raft, you also have the option of horseback riding or fly-fishing this morning. All of the kids and counselors are going rafting.
- 12:30 pm Lunch is in the dining room.
- If you are planning on going to Mesa Verde, please sign up in the office.*
- 2:00 pm This afternoon you can choose horseback riding or fly-fishing. Don't forget that you can always choose to relax on your own or participate in your kids' activities.
- The Buckaroos, Rough Riders, and Teens should all meet at the Trading Post for this afternoon's rides and activities. All of the kids will be in the Ruckus Room between 4:30 and 5 o'clock when you are finished with your activities.
- 6:00 pm Dinner is early tonight because of the Melodrama.
- 6:45 pm Tonight you have the option of attending the Victorian Melodrama in town. Please meet in the driveway in front of the office – CTR has acquired tickets ($10 per person additional charge), and will provide transportation and guides.

Thursday
